

WILSON DONOR TO POOR FUND
President's $200 Gift Brings Charity Relief Total to $1,231.50.
DRIVE GOAL, $10,000
Associated Charities Asks That Public Show Liberty.

Headed by a contribution of $200 from President Wilson, the Associated Charities and Citizens' Relief Association yesterday published a list of donors to the $10,000 Easter Appeal fund showing a total of $1,231.50 has been received.

Gifts are being received from many who had previously contributed, according to the finance committee, of which Milton E. Alles is chairman.

The gift from the White House was accompanied by a letter to Cuno H. Rudolph, president of the Associated Charities, saying:

"Mrs. Wilson is sending the enclosed contribution from the President to show his interest in the splendid work carried on by the Associated Charities, and she wished me to express her appreciation of the many ways the organization has been of assistance to her."

(Signed) "EDITH BENHAM, Secretary."

Recalls Recent Drive.
A statement by Mr. Alles recalls the generous over-subscription of the "Fourteen Opportunities" last Christmas.

"No less important than the assurance of regular income is the service side, which means keeping in touch with the mother, encouraging regular attendance at school for the children, and through visits of the charities dietitian, to advise in the selection and preparation of the right kind of food," the statement says.

This service side that the appeal for the $10,000 Easter Fund particularly emphasized for it is the side that spells constructive work. The financial side may be compared to the medicine which the physician prescribes for his patient. The service represents the doctor's skill in diagnosis, the result of long years of study and treatment of many thousands of patients. The wrong prescription at the wrong time would do more harm than good. The right prescription at the right time effects the permanent cure.

BRITISH URGED TO IGNORE U. S. IN IRISH FIGHT

Irish Nationalists were quietly following the debate. At the foregoing remarks none moved but when Cecil added:

"I don't think our consideration of domestic questions should be quibbled by opinion across the Atlantic. The House echoed with repeated shouts of 'hear, hear.' Everyone who appeared to be half asleep, although all were undoubtedly following very closely every word, was suddenly alert, and even the feet of the leaders dropped from the table, but there was not the slightest change in expression on the faces of the premier, Mr. MacPherson or the other government leaders. Encouraged by this remark, Lord Robert continued:

"I am not talking for politicians over there or for that strange body, the United States Senate."

Urges Square Deal.
Again there was extreme silence, and Cecil added that if England did what was just and right, and permitted American opinion to judge by England's action, there would be no need for the government to consider American opinion.

Although previous speakers had made several references to the United States, John R. Clynes' remarks alone took out with those of Cecil, for Mr. Clynes, a laborite,

DOUBT CAUSED GERMAN RUIN

So Declares Hawley, Denouncing Scepticism at Holy Week Service.

Germany, home of "higher criticism" of the Bible, went down to defeat and ruin because of her increasing scepticism over Christianity, declared Representative Wallis C. Hawley, of Oregon, speaker at the first daily Holy Week services which are being held at Keith's Theater at 12:30 o'clock.

"Should we here in America be shorn of our heritage of Christianity, the time would be short until our country would be an intolerable place to live in," he declared.

"We are the inheritors of wonderful civilization for which we never paid," Hawley stated. "It cost the blood of our forefathers, the tears of women, the sorrow of little children, to build up our great country and its civilization. We can best pay the debt for these unearned advantages and serve our country, by being followers of Jesus Christ."

Representative Simeon D. Fess, of Ohio, will be the speaker at today's meeting and Dr. Caleb R. Stetson, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church, will preside.

The meeting given under the direction of Episcopal churches of the city, are non-denominational. The last meeting will be on Thursday.

$10,000,000 Morgan Gold Unloaded from Steamer

(By Herald Leased Wire.)
New York, March 29.—Under a strong guard $10,000,000 gold was unloaded today from the steamer Lapland. It is consigned to J. P. Morgan & Co., and is being removed to the Subtreasury.

None of the Lapland's passengers knew that such a precious cargo was on board, but when the wagons carrying the yellow metal backed up to the Subtreasury in Pine street a large crowd watched the transfer.

The $10,000,000 is the first shipment here by England to meet the maturity of the Anglo-French loan.

CALLS LEPER'S CHARGE ABSURD

Former Army Officer Denies Centivire Was Mistreated at Camp.

Stories of Willard Centivire, leper, of "tortures" inflicted upon him while in service at Camp Nichols were called "absurd" in a telegram received yesterday by Representative James A. O'Connor, Louisiana, from James A. Edmonds, of New Orleans.

O'Connor forwarded the telegram, with a copy of Centivire's request for a government pension and charges of cruelty against army officers, to Secretary Baker, Edmonds, formerly a lieutenant colonel stationed at Camp Nichols.

Wilson Frees C. M. Davis, Ohio Banker, from Prison

President Wilson has commuted the sentence of Charles H. Davis, former official of a Cincinnati bank, so as to bring about his immediate release from Atlanta penitentiary, it was announced yesterday.

Davis was sentenced January 18, 1919, to serve seven and one-half years for embezzlement. It was represented to the President that Davis is of advanced years and in failing health and that he did not personally profit from the misappropriation of funds. Davis was released from custody Sunday.

asserted he was in "close touch" with the officers accused by Centivire, and denied prisoners were ever "cruelized" or "hung by the arms."

Dr. William C. Fowler, District health officer yesterday, through Surg. Gen. Hugh S. Cumming asked that the government relieve the District of the burden of caring for Centivire and that he be returned to the Louisiana Leper Home, from where he escaped three weeks ago.

JOHNSON RAPS GOLD CAMPAIGN

Cooper Union Hears Senator Denounce Use of Large Funds.

(By Herald Leased Wire.)
New York, March 29.—Declaring against the too lavish use of money for the capture of the Presidential nomination, Senator Hiram Johnson, of California, opening his Eastern speaking tour at Cooper Union tonight declared:

"The vast contributions of money, in some instances," he said, "are being made exactly as investments would be made by the contributors. The ultimate debt is not repaid in kind, but the price nevertheless is paid, not in the money given to a particular candidate today, but the collection comes finally from all the people in the liquidation from the people's government of the obligation incurred."

The audience, a demonstrative one which filled every chair in Cooper Union, and knotted about the entrances, applauded generously. It was a typical Cooper Union audience, largely men of the type who think for themselves along radical lines.

Laughter greeted his reference, in speaking of the early days of agitation on behalf of the league to "a certain ex-President who some admire and none follow." Applause broke forth again when he declared that for the past year the Senate has stood as the bulwark of liberties.

The address was the first in a series to be given nightly during the week in every borough in the metropolitan district.

Pound for pound the steels in a
MAXWELL
equal those in any car

THE tendency in cars today is to reduce weight, to cut out unnecessary pounds, to take those extra burdens off the power of an engine.

In a Maxwell there is hardly a superfluous pound. Like a great cross country runner, it carries no handicap in weight.

It is made of fine steels, and these steels have that magic combination that metallurgists strive for—light weight and extra strength.

These steels are made to order for Maxwell. They are treated in great furnaces, and they are strong beyond belief. Pound for pound, they equal the steels in any car built. But they more than repay for their high cost. They wear. They stand terrific abuse. They defy time.

But their greatest task is to lighten the burden of the Maxwell engine, enable it to perform brilliantly, and make gasoline deliver extended mileage.

Thus you will understand that rise of Maxwell the world over, that ever growing friendship, that ever increasing demand.

Today nearly 400,000 in use. In 1920, 100,000 more. Still this will fill but 60% of the world's requirements for this remarkable car.
